

February 2009 – Chronic Pain Program Celebrates 100th Group

The Chronic Pain Program has just celebrated its 100th group!

This program provides services to individuals with chronic pain who have exhausted traditional medical approaches and still find that the pain interferes with their ability to function. It is the only residential program in the Midwest and its outcomes indicate great success, thanks to the efforts of the multi-disciplinary chronic pain team.